Forest Lake Boat

This little ship is a wonderful role play setting for hours of imaginative play. From far away the flag pole can be seen, and on board the boat, a steering wheel and a small sand wheel will make sure that the cause-and-effect curiosities are in place. Role play will stimulate the child's cognitive development in evoking story telling and imagination, and the handling of mobile objects will eternally interest especially the younger children. Product is available as FSC® Certified (FSC® C004450) robinia wood on request.
